

HMA Honorary Life CRISS-CROSS

How much do you know about HMA's Honorary Life members? You may need to explore our Honorary Life Membership page at handbellmusicians.org/membership/honorary-life-membership/ to find the answers. And while you're there, take a moment to explore the stories of these remarkable individuals who have shaped, and continue to shape, our art form.

ACROSS

1. John Behnke conducted a college handbell group at ____ University that toured extensively throughout the US, Germany, and Scandinavia.
4. Honorary Life member Margaret Shurcliff was well known for her ____ Hill Ringers.
6. Valerie ____ was a member of the original handbell notation committee.
8. Ellen Jane ____ Porter was a third-generation partner in the publishing company of the same name.
13. James Salzwedel is author of the Guild's motto, "____ (2 wds.) Through a Musical Art."
15. Woodrow ____ has a national scholarship named in his honor.
16. Donald ____ conducted an advanced bell ringing workshop in Michigan for more than 20 years.

DOWN

2. As a member of the ____ (2 wds) Guild of English Handbell Ringers, Elizabeth Bradford managed the festivals at Castle Hill in Boston for many years.
3. Jacob ____ produced the first aluminum bass bells.
4. Louise Frier conceived of the ____ technique. (2 wds.)
5. Christine Anderson published her first collection titled, "Songs for the ____" (2 wds.) in 1987.
7. Marilyn ____ established the AGEHR Endowment Fund during her term as National President.
9. David Davidson was instrumental in developing the first International ____.
10. Joan Shull authored a regular Overtones column titled "Bach, ____, and..."
11. William Payn conducted handbells at ____ University for many years.
12. William ____ founded the community group Symphonic Handbells of Columbus which he conducted until 2003.
14. Frederick ____ is the only Englishman awarded the Honorary Life member award.

Answers on next page

Answers:

Happy Holidays from
Handbell Musicians of America

www.HandbellMusicians.org